

To all the District nurses who cared for my wonderful mother, Irene Frenkelberg, especially Viv and Tess, my heartfelt thanks. You gave my mother her dignity and were invaluable in helping her die at home with us.

Thank you

I do not know how you are able to carry out such a difficult role with such compassion, patience and love but I am so very grateful that you are able to do this.

Many, many thanks for caring for my mother and for my father, sister and myself at such a tragic time for us.

Anna Mogie

Nurse Manager,

Whitchurch Hospital,

CF14 7BF

Dear Ms Mogie,

I would like to take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks to all the district nurses who have visited my home in the last few days. I have never been housebound before but the cheerful and helpful efficiency of the nurses has given me a great deal of confidence in this situation.

In particular I would like to thank Jacqui Parry, Haulwen Hendry, Nia Williams and Violet Thomas from the Rhwbina Clinic. They have gone out of their way, indeed one might say "the extra mile" to ensure I had the correct equipment for my catheter which the night staff do not carry.

The nurses have also been excellent at answering my many questions and again their knowledge has put my mind at ease on many topics.

I feel I cannot thank them enough for all their kindness and attention.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Mr Richards

My wife Irene died on July 24th.

When we understood the severity of her illness from her diagnosis in March she wanted to end her days at home. The family determined to do all we could to help her achieve this.

With your, and your colleague organisations' help we were able to achieve her wishes. She died in the presence of my two daughters and me after spending the last few weeks in comfort and virtually pain free.

Your nurses were not only competent and skilful but were empathic and their visits brought a smile to Irene's face.

The nursing team were based at Rhiwbina Clinic. Will you please pass our family's thanks to all who helped her.

Yours sincerely
