Annual Leave Procedure
Introduction and Aim Cardiff and Vale University Health Board (the UHB) is committed to developing and maintaining arrangements which make it a great place to work and learn. The UHB will seek to ensure that members of staff are able to take the Annual Leave to which they are entitled, the purpose of which is to provide a break from work. The aim of this Procedure is to set out employee entitlements to Annual Leave, recognising that there needs to be consistent service cover in order to be able to deliver an effective and safe service to our patients.
Objectives <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To support a positive and healthy work-life balance for staff • To ensure that service needs are balanced with individual needs • To provide comprehensive information to employees and managers on their Annual Leave entitlements • To ensure the fair, consistent and effective application of Annual Leave provisions
Scope This procedure applies to all staff employed by the UHB on Agenda for Change Terms and Conditions, Executive Directors and Very Senior Managers (VSMs) Consultants and Career Grade Medical Staff should refer to the Annual Leave Policy for Career Grade Medical and Dental Staff. Doctors in training should refer to the appropriate Deanery policies regarding Annual Leave entitlement.

2	ANNUAL LEAVE YEAR
	The leave year runs from 1 April to 31 March.
3	ENTITLEMENT
3.1	Entitlements to Annual Leave are set out in the employee's contract of employment, as determined by the NHS Terms and Conditions of Service. This is the entitlement for complete years' service. For staff who work full time (i.e. 37½ hours) the leave entitlement per leave year is as follows: <table border="1" style="width: 100%; border-collapse: collapse;"> <thead> <tr> <th style="text-align: center;">Length of service (complete years)</th> <th style="text-align: center;">Annual leave and general public holidays (days)</th> <th style="text-align: center;">Annual leave and general public holidays (hours)</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>On appointment</td> <td>28 days + 8 days</td> <td>210 hours + 60 hours</td> </tr> <tr> <td>After five years' service</td> <td>30 days + 8 days</td> <td>225 hours + 60 hours</td> </tr> <tr> <td>After ten years' service</td> <td>34 days + 8 days</td> <td>255 hours + 60 hours</td> </tr> </tbody> </table> Part time staff are entitled to a pro-rata entitlement based on their contracted hours. The pro-rata entitlement can be found within appendix A and B.	Length of service (complete years)	Annual leave and general public holidays (days)	Annual leave and general public holidays (hours)	On appointment	28 days + 8 days	210 hours + 60 hours	After five years' service	30 days + 8 days	225 hours + 60 hours	After ten years' service	34 days + 8 days	255 hours + 60 hours
Length of service (complete years)	Annual leave and general public holidays (days)	Annual leave and general public holidays (hours)
On appointment	28 days + 8 days	210 hours + 60 hours
After five years' service	30 days + 8 days	225 hours + 60 hours
After ten years' service	34 days + 8 days	255 hours + 60 hours
3.2	Calculation of reckonable Service Length of service is determined by total NHS Service (i.e. UHB Service plus previous NHS service regardless of whether or not there has been a break). For new staff, all previous NHS Service will be regarded as reckonable for the purposes of Annual Leave only if documentary evidence is provided by the member of staff or an ESR Inter-Authority Transfer is completed. There is also discretion to take into account any other period or periods of employment with employers outside the NHS where these are judged to be relevant to NHS employment. Bank and Locum/Agency service will not count towards reckonable service for the purposes of Annual Leave. For nursing staff, anyone who started Nurse training prior to September 1992 would have been paid as an NHS employee for the duration of their training, so this time will be counted. Nurse training after September 2002 will not be counted as service for the purposes of Annual Leave.

	Falsification of previous service and/or leave entitlement is considered misconduct under the UHB Disciplinary Policy and counter-fraud processes. Employees are responsible for providing evidence of their total NHS service to support their manager in calculating Annual Leave entitlement, and ensuring their manager is aware when they reach 5 and 10 years' service. If employees notice an error with their annual leave entitlement, it must be reported to their line manager within the current leave year to be rectified. If an employee's annual leave entitlement is incorrect due to having previous NHS service when commencing in post, then line managers should contact the payroll department to confirm length of service and an ESR Inter-Authority Transfer should be completed.
4	PROCEDURE
4.1	All staff should record their Annual Leave entitlement in hours to ensure that the individual entitlement is accurate and equitable regardless of whether they are full or part time or the length/number of shifts worked in a particular week. When any leave is taken (whether annual or public holiday) the contracted hours normally worked on that day should be deducted from the total leave entitlement. This applies in all cases, including where flexible working arrangements (e.g. compressed hours) are in place.
4.2	Calculating Annual Leave The calculation of Annual Leave entitlement is the responsibility of the Line Manager. Managers should refer to Human Resources for advice on term time, annualised hours or other unusual contracts. To calculate an employee's total leave entitlement in hours (inclusive of General Public (Bank) Holidays, the figures in Appendices A and B should be added together. Hours are to be rounded up or down to the nearest ¼ hour. The annual leave calculator is a tool which can be used to calculate employees' leave entitlement. The calculator is for guidance only and should be used in conjunction with this Annual Leave Procedure. All calculations should be checked by the line manager to ensure they are accurate. The calculator can be found on the Annual Leave Toolkit: Or by following this link: https://cavuhb.nhs.wales/staff-information/toolkits/annual-leave/

4.3	Part Years' Service
	4.3.1	Entitlement on Joining The Annual Leave entitlement of new starters is accrued and calculated from the first day of employment using the following calculation: $\text{full-year A/L entitlement} \times \frac{\text{number of calendar days (from start date)}}{365}$
	4.3.2	Entitlement on Leaving Staff who leave the UHB is entitled to be paid for any Annual Leave accrued and not taken. The following formula should be used to calculate the Annual Leave entitlement up to the termination date: $\text{full-year A/L entitlement} \times \frac{\text{number of calendar days (to leaving date)}}{365}$ Where Annual Leave taken exceeds the entitlement, payment will be deducted from the final salary.
	4.3.3	Where the leave entitlement changes during the leave year because of an increase or decrease in hours, or because the employee reaches 5 or 10 years' service, the entitlement for each period should be calculated and added together.
4.4	Requests for Annual Leave
	4.4.1	ESR is an electronic recording system and is used to monitor the amount of annual leave an employee takes. With effect from 1st April 2019, all annual leave should be recorded in one of the following ways:- Annual leave for all staff attached to a roster in an e-rostering system should be recorded on the roster system. Details of annual leave recorded in the e-rostering system is imported into ESR, and reports can be run from ESR to show where staff have over or under-taken their annual leave. Annual leave for all other staff should be recorded in ESR Self-Service.
	4.4.2	As far as is reasonably practicable, staff should be able to take their Annual Leave when they wish to do so. However, this may not always be achievable and will be dependent upon service needs.

		Annual leave which is requested from the next year's entitlement will only be granted in exceptional circumstances, where all other options have been exhausted. If the leave is authorised, then the line manager must record this leave in ESR and deduct it as appropriate from the following leave year's entitlement.
	4.4.3	The UHB is committed to providing a consistent and high standard of service for our patients and customers. This can only be achieved by maintaining adequate staffing levels. In order to facilitate this, each ward or department should have a detailed local procedure in place which addresses the service needs of that particular work area. This should include issues such as how many staff at which grade can be away at any one time on planned leave, how many weeks can be taken during peak period, and what the authorisation procedure is. Local procedures must be developed in consultation with staff representatives and subject to an Equality Impact Assessment. Annual Leave should be planned to minimise the need for Bank and Agency cover, and to prevent a peak in Annual Leave at year end.
	4.4.4	Where an Annual Leave request is refused, and this decision is not in accordance with the departmental procedure, employees may ask for the reasons for refusal to be put into writing. On these occasions managers/supervisors will be expected to supply this information. Employees must not make any bookings or payments for holidays until their request for Annual Leave has been granted. If employees proceed to take annual leave when it has not been authorised, it may lead to further action under the Disciplinary Policy and Procedure. Managers must in turn respond to requests for annual leave in a timely manner without unreasonable delay.
	4.4.5	Staff should be able to request Annual Leave as part of a day/shift/week (in hours). This flexibility is to enable staff to use Annual Leave to meet their own individual needs where possible, especially where they fall outside of the Flexible Working or Special Leave Policies
5	PAYMENT
5.1	Pay during Annual Leave will include regularly paid supplements including any recruitment and retention premia, payments for work outside normal hours and high cost area supplements. Pay is calculated on the basis of what the individual would have received had he/she been at work.
5.2	In lieu of the fact that pay during Annual Leave is calculated on what the individual would have received had they been in work, within the UHB staff who work unsocial hours or On-Call or overtime currently receive a monthly working time directive payment based on their unsocial hours or On-Call or overtime earnings.

6	PUBLIC (BANK) HOLIDAYS
6.1	In addition to Annual Leave entitlement, staff are entitled to paid statutory Public Holidays. There are 8 Public (Bank) Holidays in a normal leave year, although depending on the placement of Easter this can vary between 6 and 10. Public Holidays are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Good Friday • Easter Monday • May Day • Late Spring Bank Holiday • Late Summer Bank Holiday • Christmas Day • Boxing Day • New Year's Day Where Public Holidays during the Christmas and New Year period fall at weekends, alternative days will be re-designated as if they were Public Holidays and the appropriate payments applied. Staff will not receive additional payments for both the alternate days and the days which would otherwise have been Public Holidays. A list of upcoming bank holidays can also be found on the Government website: https://www.gov.uk/bank-holidays
6.1	For pay purposes, a Public Holiday starts and ends at midnight. Public Holiday payments will be made in accordance with the number of hours worked during this period.
6.3	Full time employees are entitled to all Public Holidays which fall within that leave year. Part-time employees' entitlement is calculated on a pro rata basis and they will only receive the entitlement amount in line with the number of basic contracted hours worked. Appendix B contains the Public Holiday entitlement for all staff, both as hours per Public Holiday and in total for a full leave year. N.B. Appendix B shows the accrual of Public Holiday entitlement only. When recording leave taken on a Public Holiday, the hours that would have ordinarily been worked on that day should be deducted from the total leave entitlement, i.e. the length of a standard working 'day'. If staff are not rostered to work on the Public Holiday or the Public Holiday falls on their usual day off, no hours will be deducted, and the commensurate time off can be taken on another occasion.

6.4	Members of staff may be required to work on Public Holidays in accordance with their working pattern or rota. Staff required to work or to be 'on call' on a Public Holiday are entitled to the appropriate enhanced payments and to take the equivalent time off in lieu at basic rates at a later date. Staff who take this time off in lieu at a later date, must book it as annual leave from their annual leave entitlement.
6.5	In departments that normally close on Public Holidays, members of staff must either take that time as paid holiday (booked in the normal way and making appropriate deduction of their normal working hours for that day from their leave entitlement) or, with prior agreement from their manager, work these hours at an alternative time or place. Staff who work in departments that normally close on a Public Holiday may find it helpful to deduct the appropriate number of hours from their total leave balance (i.e. Annual Leave and Public Holidays) at the start of the year rather than as and when Public Holidays occur. In departments that normally work on Public Holidays, members of staff wishing to take leave must make the appropriate deduction of their normal working hours for that day from their leave entitlement. The normal booking rules for the department will apply.
7	SPECIAL CASES
7.1	Staff away from the workplace Staff who are away from the workplace should refer to the relevant policy or guidelines for information relating to their Annual Leave e.g. Maternity, Paternity and Adoption Guidelines, Secondment Policy, Sickness and Absence Policy. Employees will not be entitled to an additional day off if they are sick on a General Public (Bank) Holiday which they would otherwise have been required to work as part of their working week. These hours will therefore be deducted from their total Annual Leave and General Public (Bank) Holiday entitlement the usual way.
7.2	Carrying Over of Annual Leave There is an expectation that employees should take all their Annual Leave entitlement in the relevant leave year. Managers have the responsibility to authorise leave in accordance with service needs and the needs of the individual. Employees have a responsibility to plan and schedule their Annual Leave throughout the leave year. The One Wales Contract states that there is no entitlement to holidays or holiday pay being carried forward to the next holiday year. Under normal circumstances members of staff may apply in writing to carry over Annual Leave up to a maximum of 5 days (pro-rata for part time staff). However, staff should be aware

	that it is not usual practice for the UHB to approve such requests and they would have to be agreed at a Directorate level. There may be exceptional circumstances in which an employee is unable to use all their Annual Leave within the leave year because of service demands. One such example of carryover due to exceptional circumstances might be a global pandemic affecting service demands. Regular annual leave should be encouraged and continue to be planned and taken to ensure there is a balance between service demands and the employee's wellbeing. The rules around annual leave during long term sickness absence can be complex and are based around statutory entitlement (20 days pro-rata) rather than contractual. Managers and staff are therefore advised to contact Human Resources for specific advice, however it is advised that annual leave is taken during the absence, rather than accrue and carryover into the next leave year. n.b. carry over provisions will vary while on Maternity Leave, Adoption Leave and Sickness Absence. Please refer to the relevant policy for guidance.
7.3	Staff Moving Within the UHB Where staff move to other posts / departments / sites within the UHB they transfer their Annual Leave entitlement for the remainder of the Annual Leave year. Any holidays already booked will be honoured. Staff should notify their new manager of these dates prior to commencement in the new post.
7.4	Death in Service Where an employee dies in service, an allowance equivalent to the balance of the Annual Leave entitlement at the date of death, calculated on a proportionate basis, shall be paid to the employee's personal representative. No deduction from the final salary payment should be made in respect of Annual Leave taken in excess of entitlement at the date of death.
7.5	Restricted Services Some departments may reduce their services for the period between Christmas and New Year, and staff are therefore expected to allocate the necessary Annual Leave for those days which are not General Public (Bank) Holidays. Staff will be notified of this arrangement when they join such a department. Where this takes place ad hoc and at short notice, support will be provided by the Workforce and OD function and staff representatives.

7.6	Employment Break Staff on an unpaid Employment break do not accrue Annual Leave since the contract of employment is suspended for the duration of the break and that period does not count as service with the UHB.
7.7	Unpaid Leave Unpaid Annual Leave is not an entitlement, but may be granted in exceptional circumstances at the discretion of the Line Manager when the paid Annual Leave entitlement has been exhausted. Where Annual Leave has already been booked and unforeseen circumstances subsequently arise, which mean that the employee needs to take time off work, paid leave should be used up first, and unpaid leave given for the pre-booked period.
7.8	Other Types of Authorised Absence Managers should ensure they are aware of other Policies and Procedures dealing with time away from the workplace such as the Special Leave Policy, Managing Attendance at Work Policy and local Time Off in Lieu procedures, and ensure that each is used in appropriate circumstances.
7.9	Extended periods of Annual Leave Managers should be mindful of the fact that there may be times when individual employees wish to take Annual Leave for a longer period than would usually be approved e.g. around the time of their wedding/honeymoon, for a 'once in a lifetime' opportunity, to visit family living overseas. These requests should be given consideration and accommodated where possible, as long as the service needs can also be met.
7.10	Annual Leave Purchase Scheme The Annual Leave Purchase Scheme means that staff can apply to 'buy' up to two weeks additional Annual Leave and spread the reductions in their salary over a 3, 6, or 12 month period. Staff will be asked to confirm in advance the dates on which they would like to use the additional Annual Leave, so that managers can plan for this absence. This will ensure that there is no negative impact on the quality of patient care we deliver and that there are no additional costs to the UHB. The UHB, however, reserves the right to reject a member of staff's application to buy additional Annual Leave if the absence will have a negative effect on the day to day delivery of services or adversely affect the team.

	Staff should ensure their annual leave entitlement on ESR is updated following the purchase of leave and should check with payroll if there is a discrepancy.
7.11	Religious Festivals
	Managers should consider favourably any request by staff to take paid leave for religious festivals. Such requests should take priority where possible, although managers will need to balance the needs of the service. Employees should inform managers at the earliest possible time of these dates, so that appropriate arrangements can be made. Further information relating to accommodating religion or belief requests can be found in the ACAS guide for Religion or Belief in the workplace – A guide for employers and employees https://archive.acas.org.uk/religiousfestivals
